

Kimberly Kaluzny Bio:

Kimberly lives in Zelienople with her husband Jeff. They moved here, with their family, from Erie, PA seventeen years ago. They have 3 children (Amanda, Preston, and Julia) and 4 grandchildren.

Their youngest daughter Julia is 27 years old and has Down Syndrome. She attends LifeSteps Transitions Program, is employed at Super Styles and lives in a supported home with her roommate in Zelienople.

After 35+ years in the mortgage industry as an Area Manager for Wells Fargo, Countrywide and Home Savings Bank and most recently at WesBanco as a Loan Officer, Kim has decided to make a career change and join the Autism Society of Pittsburgh as the Director of Marketing and Outreach.

Kimberly has been involved with many organizations over the past 27 years, helping with community outreach and fundraising for PA Connecting Communities, Best Buddies, LifeSteps, 22 Quities Special Needs Beauty Pageant and the Woodlands Foundation.

Kimberly will be working on a variety of fundraising campaigns, events and community outreach throughout Western PA.
