Every cent raised is spent in our region to help improve the lives of those among us with autism and their families.

#AUT2KNOW

Autism evokes from an advocate just about every possible human emotion. Many are draining and disappointing, but there are moments of unparalleled satisfaction – that is, when one of our people receives genuine friendship, love, or a simple friendly expression from another person. When it happens, it is invariably natural, voluntary, and from the heart.

Forced inclusion can never produce "natural, voluntary, and from the heart." Neither can forced segregation. Love and friendship cannot be legislated, litigated or mandated, any more than can equal skills, abilities, charm or popularity. That's why inclusion is only appropriate at levels likely to contribute to a given individual’s incremental growth and development. This includes the ability to recognize and appreciate the positive attention of others. Naturally. Voluntarily. From the heart.

Thank God there are two sides to the advocacy coin.
